24
When first I threw my eyes upon Cordelia
The many years we married seem a few
'Twas in my fathers hut in Tipperarey
I was nailing on the door the Horse's Shoe.
Chorus:

34
The only time I had domestic trouble
'Twas with my little wife that I adore
She was bringing in a crowd of her relations,
And I found the Horse Shoe lying on the floor.
Chorus:

I never give away to superstition
Her relations kept me in the Devil's stew
Until I gathered courage and I whaled them
It come from finding of the Horse's Shoe.

Chorus, Then Gather, etc.

I offer ye a bit of consolation
Ye husbands that are keeping up a crew
Of a lazy set of vagabond relations
I offer ye this horses iron Shoe

Chorus, Then Gather, etc
